H.S.R. NO. 422

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS, A distinguished member of this House of Representatives, the Honorable Bob Salter of Gatesville, is celebrating his birthday on Saturday, May 17, when, hopefully, this Body will not be in session; and

WHEREAS, Although he is a sophomore in the House this session, having served his first term as a member of the 60th Legislature, this classification is one in name only, for he has the poise and finesse of a polished senior in his approach to legislative matters; and

WHEREAS, His committee appointments have been of the highest order, since he has held membership on such prestigious groups as Appropriations, Juvenile Crime and Delinquency, Revenue and Taxation, Congressional and Legislative Districts, and, during the present session, he is vice chairman of the important Elections Committee; and

WHEREAS, Although a native of the "Gator State," Bob couldn't be a better Texan if he could claim Jacksonville, Texas instead of Jacksonville, Florida for his birthplace: surely the stork got mixed up when he was winging his way to the Salter residence on that May 17, 1934; and

WHEREAS, Bob has a lovely wife, Lynita, and three fine sons, the eldest of whom, Rick, is 10 years old, with Chuck, age 6, and Baby Steve, just over 8 months; and

WHEREAS, A graduate of Jacksonville University (Florida, that is) with a bachelors degree in history and government, Bob also has an LLB from Baylor University School of Law; he is a member of the Baptist Church, and served in the United States Army for two years; and

WHEREAS, Nothing much is known about Bob's athletic accomplishments, but it is understood that he has recently taken up a new sport in which he has become quite proficient, if not actually expert; he is said to be an outstanding player of ping-pong; and

WHEREAS, In his community, he has been most active in Jaycees and has just recently been elected president of the Gatesville Lions Club; he belongs to the State Bar of Texas and the Coryell County Bar Association; and

WHEREAS, His many friends in the House of Representatives desire that Bob Salter's birthday not be overlooked, even though he has the misfortune of having it fall on Saturday this year; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives of the 61st Legislature hereby congratulate the Honorable Bob Salter of Gatesville, Texas on the celebration of his 35th birthday, and extend to him, in advance, best wishes for this great day; and, be it further

RESOLVED, That an official copy of this Resolution, under the Seal of the House of Representatives, be prepared for our good friend, Bob, in high praise for his accomplishments and as our good wishes for many happy returns of the day.
